YOUTH APPRENTICESHIP — 2018 GOVERNOR'S SUMMIT —

Last year, the Governor's Office, the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries (L&I) Apprenticeship Division collaborated with the Aerospace Joint Apprenticeship Committee (AJAC) to deliver a foundational one-day conference to kick-off Youth Apprenticeship in our state. One year later, these same partners will convene to host the 2018 Governor's Youth Apprenticeship Summit, in Olympia, WA on January 30th at Hotel RL.

This year, AJAC will host the summit as a technical workshop designed to train and advise educators, employers, apprenticeship committees, and policy makers regarding opportunities for new program development, early best practices, and recommended state-level policy change. As the keynote speaker, Governor Inslee will be joined by leadership from L&I, OSPI, and SBCTC. Wisconsin's Youth Apprenticeship program staff, the largest and longest standing youth apprenticeship program in the nation, will also be highlighted.
