What will your new role at AJAC include?

As the new office assistant, my role at AJAC includes providing direct administrative assistance to all AJAC staff and committee members and maintain a consistent presence in the office through excellent customer service.

If you could choose anyone, who would you pick as your mentor?

My father has been and still is my mentor – teaching me discipline, responsibility, and the tools to create and maintain a successful personal and professional life. Also, because of my father, I found love for Pearl Jam, Chumbawamba, football, and chicken wings. There's nothing like good music, good food, and good times!

What is your favorite part about working in the non-profit industry?

My favorite part about working in the non-profit industry is the opportunity to meet a need for others. It brings me great joy that I am able to work for an organization that provides the means and resources for those who want to advance their career through apprenticeship.

What's one thing about you that would surprise me?

One thing that would surprise you about me is I like all things theatre. I love attending live shows and musicals because it's fascinating to see a production brought to life. One of my first experiences was seeing the musical Hairspray on Broadway in New York City.

If we came to your house for dinner, what would you prepare for us?

As a Southern belle at my roots, I could not resist educating the Pacific Northwest about my famous southern cooking! I would invite you to join me in a delicious meal comprised of southern style crockpot chicken and rice with a hint of black pepper and a side salad served. Don't forget a tall glass of homemade sweet tea and a side of pecan pie for dessert (keep the doc on speed dial as you will clog those arteries)!
