Bellingham Employer Breakfast Meeting

The Aerospace Joint Apprenticeship Committee (AJAC), Bellingham Technical College and the Port of Bellingham invite you to attend a breakfast meeting to announce:

The launch of new workforce training programs to support Bellingham advanced manufacturing companies, like yours. Programs include Precision Machining and Industrial Maintenance Mechanic Apprenticeships.

Apprenticeship training is designed for your employees and includes a combination of on-the-job (OJT) training and college-level classroom instruction, enabling you to increase the productivity of your workforce. Courses will be accredited through Bellingham Technical College, giving your employees the opportunity to earn college credit while building their work experience with your company.

When: Tuesday, November 3rd
7:30-9:00 a.m.
Continental Breakfast will be served.

Where: Port of Bellingham Technology Development Center
1000 F Street
Bellingham, WA 98225

Enjoy a Continental Breakfast with AJAC and find out how your company can launch an in-house workforce training program like: AJAC's 180+ statewide participating manufacturers with 350+ active apprentices!

We look forward to seeing you there!
