Dependency Status – Worksheet #2

Complete this worksheet to determine if you are required to provide parental information on your application.

SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

The following are examples of some special circumstances where you may submit your application without providing parental information:

- ◆ Your parents are incarcerated; or
- ◆ You have left home due to an abusive family environment; or
- ◆ You do not know where your parents are and are unable to contact them (and you have not been adopted).

Not all situations are considered a special circumstance. The following are situations that would not be considered a special circumstance:

- ◆ You do not live with your parent(s)
- ◆ Your parents don't provide you with financial support
- ◆ Your parents refuse to contribute to your program expenses
- ◆ Your parents don't claim you as a dependent on their income tax return
- ◆ Your parents do not want to provide their information on your application

Were you born before January 1, 1997?

Yes No

As of today, are you married? (Also answer yes if you are separated but not divorced)

Yes No

As of July 1, 2020, will you be working on a masters or doctorate program?

Yes No

Are you currently serving on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces for purposes other than training?

Yes No

Answer "Yes" if you are currently serving in the U.S. Armed Forces or are a National Guard or Reserves enlistee who is on active duty for other than state or training purposes.

Answer "No" if you are a National Guard or Reserves enlistee who is on active duty for state or training purposes.

Are you a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces?

Yes No

Answer "Yes" (you are a veteran) if you (1) have engaged in active duty (including basic training) in the U.S. Armed Forces, or are a National Guard or Reserves enlistee who was called to active duty for other than state or training purposes, or were a cadet or midshipman at one of the service academies; and (2) were released under a condition other than dishonorable. Also answer "Yes" if you are not a veteran now but will be one by June 30, 2021.

Answer "No" (you are not a veteran) if you (1) have never engaged in active duty (including basic training) in the U.S. Armed Forces; (2) are currently an ROTC student or a cadet or midshipman at a service academy; (3) are a National Guard or Reserves enlistee activated only for state or training purposes; or (4) were engaged in active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces but released under dishonorable conditions.

Also answer "No" if you are currently serving in the U.S. Armed Forces and will continue to serve through June 30, 2021.

Do you now have, or will you have children who will receive more than half of their support from you between July 1, 2020 and June 30, 2021?

Yes No

Do you have dependents (other than your children or spouse) who live with you and who receive more than half of their support from you, now and through June 30, 2021?

Yes No

Washington College Grant for Apprenticeship

At any time since you turned age 13, were both your parents deceased, were you in foster care or were you a dependent or ward of the court?

Yes No

Answer "Yes" if at any time since you turned age 13:

- ◆ You had no living parent, even if you are now adopted; or
- ◆ You were in foster care, even if you are no longer in foster care today; or
- ◆ You were a dependent or ward of the court, even if you are no longer a dependent or ward of the court today.
For federal student aid purposes, someone who is incarcerated is not considered a ward of the court.

The apprenticeship sponsor may require you to provide proof that you were in foster care or a dependent or ward of the court.

If you answered "Yes" to any of the questions above: You will complete the financial information and household information on Worksheet #3 as an independent applicant and will not provide parental data.

If you answered "No" to all of the questions above: You will complete the financial information and household information on Worksheet #3 as a dependent applicant and will provide information for your parent's household and income.
